What materials are you currently using in your Christian Education programs?

Do you provide training for your Sunday school teachers? And if so, please briefly describe what you do.

Do you have a child protection policy in place and are you using it? (You can view the Yearly Meeting's policy at nwfriends.org/governance/yearly-meeting-policies/child-protection-policy).

What specific educational activities or programs are you most excited about that concern children and youth?

Please share about these programs. Have there been any specific lessons, topics of discussion, or programs that have worked well for adults in your meetings that you would like to share about?

In what areas do you feel that you struggle most?

What kind of training, workshops, or information might we provide that you think would be helpful? What would encourage or support your role or Christian education at your church?
